NOTES

Wee Willie Winkie – A Mother Goose rhyme set to music. Listen as Willie “runs through the town,” misbehaving by knocking on windows and bothering everyone, before eventually running off.

Flamingo Dancers – The left hand takes on the role of a dancer’s stomping feet in this avian version of a Spanish Flamenco dance, while the right hand plays the “fla-MIN-go” rhythm.

Hippo Swimming – Listen for the heavy landing when he takes a leap, and the notes stepping downward as he “dives down deep.”

Rainy Days are Special – Staccatos sound like raindrops as the words describe how a teacher makes rainy days something to look forward to.

Parrot Talk – A conversation between a sassy parrot and a human —listen for the mimicry.

Little Boy Blue – Another Mother Goose rhyme: “Little Boy Blue, come blow your horn...” Listen for the horn echoes.

Jazz Cat Jam – Check out those finger snaps!
